

SPICED Symposium “Spices and herbs – A Risk-Free Taste Experience”
(1–2 June 2016, Berlin)—Student Travel Award

Extended Deadline: 10 April 2016

To support students with excellent and innovative research topics related to the SPICED project objectives to participate in the SPICED Symposium 2016 in Berlin, the SPICED Consortium is offering a financial contribution to the travel and accommodation costs of selected participants.

To apply for a student travel award, students with poster contributions—including PhD students enrolled at a university—are invited to submit

- a poster abstract (maximum 2500 characters including spaces)
- a short CV (1–2 pages)
- a letter of motivation (1 page)
- the certificate of enrolment

to spiced@bfr.bund.de until 10 April 2016.

Please indicate on the online registration form if you are a student and if you are planning to present a poster. You will receive a confirmation via email.

Each travel award is intended to partially reimburse travel expenses. Maximum reimbursement for accommodation is 80 €, the maximum sum per student (airfare, ground transportation, hotel) is € 250.

Meals and the symposium registration fee are not eligible for reimbursement.

This award does not apply to members of the SPICED Consortium.

Applicants will receive an e-mail notification regarding the final status of their application by 15 April 2016.
